EDUCATION

False citations show Alaska education official relied on generative AI, raising broader questions

Commissioner Bishop said the documents were a first draft and appeared on the state's website due to a technical error

BY: CLAIRE STREMPLE - OCTOBER 28, 2024 5:00 AM

EXCLUSIVE

Trump's acting cyber chief uploaded sensitive files into a public version of ChatGPT

The interim director of the Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency triggered an internal cybersecurity warning with the uploads — and a DHS-level damage assessment.

AI overly affirms users asking for personal advice

Not only are AIs far more agreeable than humans when advising on interpersonal matters, but users also prefer the sycophantic models.
